KFI's John & Ken welcomes Border Patrol Agent “Nacho” Ramos in exclusive broadcast today in Ontario

Today, September 1, 2006, the John and Ken Show will be holding a special live broadcast with special guests, including our honored guest Border Patrol Agent Ignacio Ramos of the El Paso Border Patrol Sector. Today's show is an exclusive public appearance through Friends of the Border Patrol for the John and Ken Show for Southern California.

Additional guests include Members of Congress from Southern California including Ed Royce, Chairman of the House International Relations' Committee's Subcommittee on Terrorism and Nonproliferation. Our Chairman Andy Ramirez testified before Chairman Royce's subcommittee this past July 5, 2006 in San Diego at a field hearing.

Agents Nacho Ramos and Jose Compean risked their lives defending America and stopped a drug smuggler from bringing 743 pounds of narcotics across the border. You'd think they'd have been given a medal, instead an overzealous Assistant U.S. Attorney Debra Kanof rather than bring the drug smuggler to justice, prosecuted these brave agents, and even granted immunity to the drug smuggler in this great miscarriage of justice. You'll learn more about their case during this special live broadcast.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 2006
START TIME: 3 PM PDT
END TIME: 7 PM PDT
Ayres Hotel – Ontario Airport
1945 Holt Blvd.
Ontario, CA 91761

This is the sole opportunity for Los Angeles & San Diego based media to come and learn more about this case, and have an opportunity to speak directly with Agent Ramos.

The public will have an opportunity to meet Agent Ramos and help the agents fight this terrible injustice. Donations can be made in person to assist the agents as we help them fight to clear their names and reputations and fight for their freedom. 100% of the (tax-deductible) donations goes directly to assist the agents with their legal fees.
