Post A Rebuttal!

Chris Maston is a long time cheater who has had numerous affairs with women at his place of employment. He recently had two concurrent affairs (one of the women he was having an affair with had been a subordinate employee under him - literally). As a result of the multiple extramarital affairs in the office, Chris was moved from his position as the Assistant Director for the CBP Miami Field office. He is currently working as the Customs and Border Protection Service Port Director in Miami and resides in Davie, Florida. During the winter when it gets dark early, Chris will wine and dine his 'special' friends and then take them to a public park located in south Davie where he has sex with them in his red Toyota pick-up truck. Having sex in a vehicle in a public park is a criminal violation in the State of Florida. When it gets lighter out during the spring and summer, Chris will actually spend money to get a hotel room for a couple of hours at the Wellesley Inn located by Sawgr Mills Mall which is close to his house. Chris seems to have a preference for employees with names that begin with a "J" such as Jill or Jennifer. One problem- Chris is married and has two teenage kids. (The wife is aware of Chris' affairs but seems to tolerate them). Beware ladies-

You are insane defending his conduct and blaming his wife. As a top 02 October, 2008 - 22:14 level manager, the Port Director's as well as any CBP personnel, their conduct should be above reproach, even their off duty, personal conduct should be held to a higher standards. This type of conduct leaves one vulnerable to bribery, blackmail, a huge national security risks. How you can defend this guy and blame his unethical conduct on his wife

I am going to defend Chris Maston. His wife, Kim Maston, is a beast. 01 October, 2008 - 20:57 If these women wouldn't let themselves go after they get married, men like Chris Maston wouldn't have to have affairs with other employees. Who wants to go home to a water buffalo like Kim Maston. It is her fault. Not his. Why else would he be meeting Jill in a hotel about a mile from his house. Or why would he have had a long term affair with Jennifer Connors. Kim Maston is the fault here...not Chris.

In CBP, it is mandatory to have affairs, DUI's, practice 30 September, 2008 - 20:02 sexualharassment, solicit sexual favors from subordinates and it will get you promoted. Never mind that this misconduct leaves one a security risk for our country. These individuals are neverheld accountable for their conduct.

WOW! This guy should be reported! He is a disgrace to the Federal 22 September, 2008 - 10:44 Government - not to mention a security risk! I would be glad to report him if somebody would "comment" with a phone number.

As a former employee in Miami, I can tell you this guy was a joke. A lot 22 June, 2008 - 23:31 of talking...no action. He had no credibility as a Chief Inspector much less an Assistant Director or Port Director. I'm sorry...any employee who had an affair with Maston must have some serious issues. Get professional help to resolve your issues. This guy is a loser...Thank god I am out of CBP!

There is a long history of sex scandals with the former Customs Service 14 June, 2008 - 07:03 and now Customs and Border Protection. Chuck and Debbie, Jay and Myra (which would explain why Myra was able to get her DUI arrest in Virginia swept under the rug), and Chris and Jennifer/Jill, to name a few....Unlike most companies and organizations though, CBP rewards misconduct. Most organizations (including government agencies) would not have a criminal sex offender in the position of a senior manager such as the Service Port Director of Miami. CBP must have different requirements for their leadership/management.

and one of the sluts was Jennifer Connors...the press person for CBP in 21 April, 2008 - 21:15 Miami. She should work on her low self esteem.

this guy is a piece of , a senior manager screwing employees in trucks 09 April, 2008 - 20:43 and hotels. His kids must be proud of their piece of  father.

Ladies, don't get me started on U.S. Customs and Border Protection. 26 March, 2008 - 21:51 Yes, he is the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Port Director for the Port of Miami.

How can he be the Customs Port Director if he is having sex in parks. 10 March, 2008 - 21:27 That is illegal in Florida (lewd conduct violation). No wonder the Dept. of Homeland Security is so screwed up. Great management.
